

Shiri Anderson
Higher Education Resource Officer

Shiri Anderson is the Higher Education Resource Officer for the Tennessee Comptroller of the Treasury. Shiri responds to questions and provides support and information to faculty, staff and employees of Tennessee's higher education institutions and systems. Shiri also evaluates administrative policies and procedures in higher education for the Tennessee General Assembly.

Shiri has extensive legislative and policy experience in state government. She joined the Comptroller's Office in 2011 as a Legislative Research Analyst in the Office of Research and Education Accountability. She manages the Comptroller's fiscal note support form process and represents the Comptroller on the Board of Trustees for the College Savings Trust, the Board of Trustees for the Chairs of Excellence Endowment Trust, and the Council on Children's Mental Health. She became the Higher Education Resource Officer in 2016.

Prior to joining the Comptroller's Office, Shiri was the Executive Assistant to the Chairman of the Tennessee Regulatory Authority and assisted with spearheading the state's first 2-1-1 Advisory Council. She has also worked for the Tennessee Governor's Office and served as an Executive Assistant in the Tennessee General Assembly.

Shiri holds a Master of Science in Management and a Bachelor of Science in Public Management and Political Science from Austin Peay State University. She is an active member of the American Society for Public Administration and serves on the Executive Council for the Tennessee Chapter. She is also a member of the Association for Public Policy Analysis and Management, and the Tennessee Chapter of Women in Public Finance.

Shiri is on the Board of Directors for the Mayme Carmichael School Organization, Inc.

Shiri enjoys spending time with her family; her husband Micheal and their three children: Jalyn, Micheal and McKenzie.
