Comptroller Releases Annual Report on Drug Task Forces

The Comptroller's office has released the Review of Funds Administered by District Attorneys General and Judicial District Drug Task Forces: 1st – 31st Judicial District for the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2013.

The auditors had findings in five of the judicial districts. The findings and recommendations for corrective action were reviewed with the district attorneys general and representatives of the drug task forces. The details of those findings, including responses from the district attorneys general and task force representatives, are presented in the report.
