Comptroller Releases Report on Homeschool Education Regulations

The Comptroller's Offices of Research and Education Accountability (OREA) has released a new report today regarding homeschool education regulations in Tennessee.

To view the report online, go to: <http://www.comptroller.tn.gov/OREA/>

OREA supports the General Assembly and Comptroller with accurate and objective policy research and analysis. OREA reports have informed policy debates within the state legislature, led to changes in state law and sparked the creation of state initiatives to address critical needs.
