IN RE: 2014 AD VALOREM ASSESSMENTS
 CASE NO. 2014, ET AL.

ORDER AND CERTIFICATION OF ASSESSMENT

On or before Monday, August 4, 2014, the Comptroller of the Treasury, by and through the Office of State Assessed Properties (hereafter referred to as “OSAP”), notified – under Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1327(a) – all public utility and transportation companies of their 2014 ad valorem tax assessments. OSAP also notified county and municipal governments of those assessments. Under Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1327(b), “any owner, or user, the state or any county, municipality or incorporated town may appear and file exceptions” to such assessments at an informal hearing convened by the Comptroller. By letter dated July 7, 2014, Comptroller Justin P. Wilson appointed me, Bryan Kinsey, as his designee to examine any exceptions to the assessments and to review any new recommendations from OSAP’s staff. Taxpayers had until Thursday, August 14, 2014 to file exceptions with the Comptroller.

I held the hearing on Tuesday, August 19, 2014 in room 31 of the Legislative Plaza to permit anyone who filed exceptions to appear before me and present any evidence. After considering the exceptions filed, new recommendations by OSAP, and evidence submitted, I hereby certify to the Tennessee State Board of Equalization the assessments listed in the “Certification of 2014 Ad Valorem Assessments by the Comptroller of the Treasury” dated August 29, 2014. In support of this Order and Certification of Assessment, I make the following findings and conclusions:

I. Air Freight Company Exceptions:

Federal Express Corporation filed a written exception to OSAP’s valuation of property, but did not make an appearance at the August 19, 2014 hearing. According to testimony provided by OSAP, the appeal is expected to be withdrawn. To the extent that Federal Express Corporation wishes to go forward with its appeal, I note the exception but decline to grant any relief.

II. Electric Company Exceptions:

Various subsidiaries of a Tennessee corporation named Silicon Ranch filed written exceptions on August 12, 2014. These exceptions are individually listed and explained as follows:

- (i) SR Pulaski is a Tennessee limited liability company. It claims that the assessed value of the property should decrease by an incremental amount each year to reflect the decrease in fair market value of the depreciated property as specified by GAAP since there have been no additions or improvements to the property since installation.
- (ii) SR Park Plaza is a Tennessee limited liability that owns and operates solar energy property placed atop two different buildings owned and operated by Hospital Corporation of America. It claims that the assessed value of the property should decrease by an incremental amount each year to reflect the decrease in fair market value of the depreciated property as specified by GAAP since there have been no additions or improvements to the property since installation.

- (iii) SR Memphis is a Tennessee limited liability company. It claims that the assessed value of the property should decrease by an incremental amount each year to reflect the decrease in fair market value of the depreciated property as specified by GAAP since there have been no additions or improvements to the property since installation.
- (iv) SR Harvest is a Tennessee limited liability company. It claims that the assessed value of the property should decrease by an incremental amount each year to reflect the decrease in fair market value of the depreciated property as specified by GAAP since there have been no additions or improvements to the property since installation.
- (v) SR Enterprise South is a Tennessee limited liability company. It claims that the assessed value of the property should decrease by an incremental amount each year to reflect the decrease in fair market value of the depreciated property as specified by GAAP since there have been no additions or improvements to the property since installation.

- (vi) Elkton is a Tennessee limited liability company. It claims that the assessed value of the property should decrease by an incremental amount each year to reflect the decrease in fair market value of the depreciated property as specified by GAAP since there have been no additions or improvements to the property since installation.
- (vii) Commerce Way is a Tennessee limited liability company. It claims that the assessed value of the property should decrease by an incremental amount each year to reflect the decrease in fair market value of the depreciated property as specified by GAAP since there have been no additions or improvements to the property since installation.

To the extent that the Silicon Ranch subsidiaries have filed exceptions, I note the exceptions but decline to grant any relief.

III. Motor Bus Company Exceptions:

Mills Coach Service Corporation filed a written exception to its forced assessment, but did not make an appearance at the August 19, 2014 hearing due to health reasons. Mills Coach Service Corporation takes exception with the valuation of its property due to hardship and an inability to pay such taxes. In April 2013, James W. Mills, President and Owner, suffered a major medical event that caused the business to default on several loans. In November 2013, two vehicles were repossessed. The third and last vehicle was “transferred to another company to prevent it’s repossession in June 2014,” according to the filed written exception. At the hearing, OSAP argued that, since the company failed to file the required reporting schedule, the company waived its right to appeal pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1317. I determine that Mills Coach Service Corporation failed to file a reporting schedule as required by law and therefore, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1317, the company has waived the right to appeal. If it is determined that Mills Coach Service Corporation filed a lawful exception, I note its exception but decline to grant any relief.

IV. Motor Carrier Company Exceptions:

Walden Trucking filed a written exception to its forced assessment, but did not make an appearance at the August 19, 2014 hearing. According to the exception, Walden Trucking closed for business on April 12, 2014 and the owners are in the process of filing for Chapter 7 bankruptcy. The exception further notes that none of the assets have been sold or otherwise disposed of. At the hearing, OSAP contended that since the company failed to file the required reporting schedule, the company waived its right to appeal pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1317. I determine that Walden Trucking failed to file a reporting schedule as required by law and therefore, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1317, the company has waived the right to appeal. If it is determined that Walden Trucking filed a lawful exception, I note its exception but decline to grant any relief.

V. Pipeline Company Exceptions:

Colonial Pipeline Company filed a written exception and made an appearance at the August 19, 2014 hearing. The exception claims, among other things, that: (1) the classification of some of its property as real instead of personal is unconstitutional; (2) the assessment is made pursuant to an unconstitutional act passed by the Tennessee General Assembly in 2004 allegedly attempting to reverse a decision by the Tennessee Court of Appeals finding that Colonial's pipeline system is personal property; and (3) any assessment ratio that results in an assessment in excess of 30% of value for personal property and 40% of value for real property violates Colonials constitutional rights. Colonial also excepts to any local jurisdiction contesting Colonial's right to any personal property equalization relief, including equalization relief at the 15% level for centrally assessed personal property, which was granted by the State Board beginning in 1997. The issues being raised by Colonial are the same issues that have been raised annually since 2004. Furthermore, Colonial has a suit pending in Davidson County Chancery Court concerning these issues. To the extent that Colonial has filed an exception, I note Colonial's exception but decline to grant any relief.

VI. New Recommendations

OSAP presented new recommendations to me for various reasons: (1) Companies filed late reports; (2) companies amended reports; (3) companies submitted additional information; (4) OSAP corrected clerical errors; (5) OSAP discovered companies that were out of business; (6) OSAP discovered new companies; and (7) companies did not have a Tennessee presence. OSAP informed me that it informed each company listed on the new recommendations list, either by phone or e-mail, of its assessments. No one made any objections concerning the new recommendations. Therefore, I hereby accept the new recommendations list by OSAP. The new recommendations are attached to this order and are made a part of this order.

Based on the evidence presented to me in this proceeding, I, Bryan Kinsey, being the designee of the Comptroller, do hereby file with and certify to the State Board of Equalization the assessments for ad valorem taxation purposes made by the Comptroller for tax year 2014 for all public utility and transportation companies. I also certify to the State Board of Equalization the assessments in the new recommendations list for tax year 2014. The attached certification incorporates all of the assessments of all public utility and transportation companies and the findings from the hearing of Tuesday, August 19, 2014, as well as any additional evidence that was filed.

V. Conclusions

I certify that these assessments are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. Any party aggrieved with the Comptroller's decision in this matter has the right of de novo review before the Tennessee State Board of Equalization in accordance with the procedural rules of the Board.
