IN RE: 2013 AD VALOREM ASSESSMENTS
 CASE NO. 13-001, ET AL.

ORDER AND CERTIFICATION OF ASSESSMENT

On or about Monday, August 5, 2013, the Comptroller of the Treasury, by and through the Office of State Assessed Properties (hereafter referred to as “OSAP”), notified – under Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1327(a) – all public utility and transportation companies of their 2013 ad valorem tax assessments. OSAP also notified county and municipal governments of those assessments. Under Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1327(b), any company, county or municipality may appear before the Comptroller to present evidence concerning the assessments. Comptroller Justin P. Wilson appointed me, Bryan Kinsey, as his designee by letter dated August 5, 2013, to examine any exceptions to the assessments and to review any new recommendations from OSAP’s staff.

A hearing was held on Wednesday, August 21, 2013 in room 31 of the Legislative Plaza to permit anyone who filed exceptions to appear before me and present any evidence. After considering the exceptions filed, new recommendations by OASP, and evidence submitted, I hereby certify to the Tennessee State Board of Equalization the assessments listed in the “Certification of 2013 Ad Valorem Assessments by the Comptroller of the Treasury” dated September 3, 2013. In support of this Order and Certification of Assessment, I make the following findings and conclusions:

I. County Official Exceptions:

The Assessor of Property for Monroe County filed a written exception to OSAP's valuation concerning property owned by Smoky Mountain Transmission LLC, Brookfield Smoky Mountain Hydropower LLC, and Smoky Mountain Holdings LLC. In his letter dated August 8, 2013, Assessor of Property for Monroe County, Mike Shadden, requested "an informal hearing and information on how to proceed with the appeal." At the hearing, counsel for Mr. Shadden, attorney William S. (Bud) Carman, inquired about the methodology used by OSAP when determining the value of the properties listed in their exception, the relevance of incomplete ad valorem reports submitted to OSAP, and stated the Assessor's claim that a difference in value exists between the Monroe County Assessor of Property's office and OSAP. Recognizing that the heart of the exception taken by the Monroe County Assessor of Property rested upon the assessment and possible differences between the information gathered by the Assessor of Property for Monroe County and that which was provided to OSAP by the taxpayer on the 2013 ad valorem report, objection was made to the inquiry and the Monroe County Assessor of Property and his counsel were permitted to discuss and reconcile any discrepancies with OSAP staff at a later date. To the extent that the Monroe County Assessor of Property has filed an exception, I note his exception but decline to grant any relief.

II. Electric Company Exceptions:

Various subsidiaries of a Tennessee corporation named Silicon Ranch filed written exceptions to forced assessments made by OSAP and also made an appearance at the hearing on August 21, 2013. These exceptions are individually listed and explained as follows:

- (i) SR Pulaski is a Tennessee limited liability company contesting OSAP's position that SR Pulaski is subject to central assessment as a public utility.
- (ii) SR Park Plaza is a Tennessee limited liability company contesting OSAP's position that SR Park Plaza is subject to central assessment as a public utility. SR Park Plaza owns and operates solar energy property placed atop two different buildings owned and operated by Hospital Corporation of America.
- (iii) SR Memphis is a Tennessee limited liability company contesting OSAP's position that SR Memphis is subject to central assessment as a public utility. SR Memphis further claims the property they own is subject to a lease, in which Memphis Bioworks Foundation (a Tennessee non-profit corporation) leases the solar energy property from SR Memphis.
- (iv) SR Harvest is a Tennessee limited liability company contesting OSAP's position that SR Harvest is subject to central assessment as a public utility. SR Harvest further claims the property they own is subject to a lease, in which the Second Harvest Food Bank of Middle Tennessee, Inc., (a Tennessee non-profit corporation) leases the solar energy property from SR Harvest.

- (v) SR Enterprise South is a Tennessee limited liability company contesting OSAP's position that SR Enterprise South is subject to central assessment as a public utility.
- (vi) SR Agricenter is a Tennessee limited liability company contesting OSAP's position that SR Agricenter is subject to central assessment as a public utility.
- (vii) Elkton is a Tennessee limited liability company contesting OSAP's position that Elkton is subject to central assessment as a public utility.
- (viii) Commerce Way is a Tennessee limited liability company contesting OSAP's position that Commerce Way is subject to central assessment as a public utility.

To the extent that the aforementioned Silicon Ranch subsidiaries have filed an exception, I note their exceptions but decline to grant any relief.

III. Pipeline Company Exceptions:

Colonial Pipeline Company filed a written exception and made an appearance at the hearing on August 21, 2013 claiming, among other things, that: (1) the classification of some of its property as real instead of personal is unconstitutional; (2) the assessment is made pursuant to an unconstitutional act passed by the Tennessee General Assembly in 2004 allegedly attempting to reverse a decision by the Tennessee Court of Appeals finding that Colonial's pipeline system is personal property; and (3) any assessment ratio that results in an assessment in excess of 30% of value for personal property and 40% of value for real property violates Colonials constitutional rights. Colonial also excepts to any local jurisdiction contesting Colonial's right to any personal property equalization relief, including equalization relief at the 15% level for centrally assessed personal property, which was granted by the State Board beginning in 1997. The issues being raised by Colonial are the same issues that have been raised annually since 2004. Furthermore, Colonial has suit pending in Davidson County Chancery Court concerning these issues. To the extent that Colonial has filed an exception, I note Colonial's exception but decline to grant any relief.

Other appeals filed by pipeline companies were withdrawn according to testimony from OSAP staff and correspondence from the taxpayers which were entered as a collective exhibit to the relevant portion of staff's testimony at the hearing. Those companies are as follows:

- (i) The Capline Pipeline System
- (ii) Tengasco Pipeline Corporation
- (iii) Mid-Valley Pipeline Company

These appeals were withdrawn based upon new recommendations by staff predicated upon additional information provided by the taxpayer between August 5th, 2013 and August 21st, 2013.

IV. Wastewater and Sewerage Company Exceptions:

Tennessee Wastewater Systems, Inc. filed a written exception to its assessment and made an appearance at the August 21, 2013 hearing. Tennessee Wastewater Systems, Inc. takes exception with the valuation of its property. To the extent that Tennessee Wastewater Systems, Inc. has filed an exception, I note its exception but decline to grant any relief.

V. Wireless Management Company Exceptions:

Tower Assets Newco X, LLC filed a written exception to its assessment on August 9th, 2013, however according to testimony provided by OSAP staff, their appeal was withdrawn based upon a new recommendation by staff predicated upon additional information provided by the taxpayer between August 5th, 2013 and August 21st, 2013.

VI. New Recommendations

New recommendations were presented to me by OSAP for various reasons: (1) companies filed late reports; (2) companies amended reports; (3) companies submitted additional information; (4) OSAP corrected clerical errors; (5) companies were discovered to be out of business; and (6) newly discovered companies. OSAP informed me that each company listed on the new recommendations list was informed, either by phone or e-mail, of its assessments. No objections were made concerning the new recommendations. Therefore, I hereby accept the new recommendations list by OSAP. The new recommendations are attached to this order and are made a part of this order.

Based on the evidence presented to me in this proceeding, I, Bryan Kinsey, being the designee of the Comptroller, do hereby file with and certify to the State Board the assessments for ad valorem taxation purposes made by the Comptroller for tax year 2013 for all public utility and transportation companies. I also certify to the State Board the assessments in the new recommendations list for tax year 2013. The attached certification incorporates all of the assessments of all public utility and transportation companies and the findings from the hearing of Wednesday, August 21, 2013, as well as any additional evidence that was filed.

V. Conclusions

I certify that these assessments are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. Any party aggrieved with the Comptroller's decision in this matter has the right of de novo review before the Tennessee State Board of Equalization in accordance with the procedural rules of the Board.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND AND AFFIXED THE SEAL OF THE COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE ON THIS THE 3RD DAY OF SEPTEMBER 2013.
