New Financial Reporting Requirements for Governments Proposed in U.S. Senate: A Costly and Burdensome Unfunded Mandate

Federal Update: The Federal Data Transparency Act: Uh-Oh

TENNESSEE COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY

Point/Counter-point

- Unfunded Mandate
- Tower Amendment
- Largely upfront costs/over-estimated
- No new data required to be reported
- Transparency standards in place currently
- GASB adherence can be inconsistent

Pros

- Automation and transparency
- Efficient resource allocation
- Data integrity and accuracy
- Policy and investment insights
- Public accessibility and participation
- Stakeholder input

Cons

- Implementation complexity and costs
- Lack of standardization in government reporting
- Complexity of government accounting
- Data validation and reliability
- Stakeholder input

Municipal Crosswalk

- Not the end all be all – but a very good start
- Standardizing (to extent possible) will make transitioning to a FDTA compliant taxonomy much easier
- Will be able to 1 to 1 map current Municipal Chart of Accounts to FDTA taxonomy or chart of accounts
- Map once – automate forever

Crosswalk updates

- CPA firms beginning to use
- Updated in July and August
- Majority of the updates in August
- Minimal updates remainder of the year
- Planned yearly updates to remain GASB compliant
- No major changes to input method or look
